REPORT

of the

INSPECTOR OF LEGAL OFFICES

ONTARIO, 1963

Parliament Buildings,
Toronto 2, Ontario.

The Honourable F. M. Cass, Q.C.,
Attorney General, Province of Ontario,
Parliament Buildings, Toronto 2.

SIR:

I have the honour to present to you my Report as Inspector of Legal Offices for the year ending December 31st, 1963.

Progress can again be reported in the improvement in court house accommodation over the past year. New court houses were officially opened in Windsor and Milton. An extensive addition was completed in Guelph and the addition to the Ottawa court house will be completed in early 1964. The new court house in Whitby will be completed in late 1964, the one in Kitchener in 1965 and in Toronto in 1966. Draft plans for extensive renovations in the Kingston court house have been received and activity can be reported in Bracebridge.

The new addition to the Registry Office in Kingston was completed and the one in Cornwall will be finished shortly. New magistrates' buildings were opened in Stratford and St. Catharines. Unfortunately, an accident occurred shortly after the new Juvenile Courts building was opened in Ottawa in the fall.

The increased monetary jurisdiction of the division courts, effective July 1st, 1962, resulted in much heavier court lists and necessitated, particularly in the heavily-populated areas, additional court days. In the Metropolitan Toronto area it has been necessary to have many additional court days in all five Toronto courts and this has placed a heavy burden not only on the judges and the court officials but also the court reporting facilities, which are already taxed to the limit. With additional assistance provided through His Honour Judge A. R. Willmott and the co-operation of the officials involved, the lists have been kept fairly well up-to-date.

In the County of York arrangements were made to have a county court chambers sit in Newmarket, the County seat, every Friday. In addition in December a non-jury county court sittings was held in Newmarket, to dispose of cases emanating from this area. It is too early as yet to determine whether the holding of county chambers and sittings outside the Metro area is successful. Careful record is being kept of the number of matters being attended to, to determine whether the time of the judge and the officials involved and the cost are justified.

We regret the untimely passing of a number of our officials during the past year, Mr. W. M. Magwood, Q.C., Master of Titles, Toronto, Magistrate A. S. Mitchell of Guelph, Magistrate F. N. Thompson of Toronto and Mr. W. E. Goodwin, Q.C., Crown Attorney of Stratford. In addition, many of our senior civil servants, sheriffs, local registrars, magistrates and registrars of deeds reached retirement age. All rendered excellent service to the Province over many years.

The revenue from Magistrates' Fines and Fees maintained the same high level as last year. Once again an increase in Land Transfer Tax reflects an increase in business in the Registry and Land Titles offices.

The revenue from the Sheriffs, Local Registrars group showed a decrease, whereas the Division Court revenue remained high.

All outside offices were audited during the current year and I am again pleased to report that excellent relationships exist between the outside offices, the public and this office.
